Ads & Copywriting

Split Tester

This keyword research software helps you instantly Is Your Winning Ad Really a Winner?

If you've got two ads that have different click-through rates right now, how sure can you be that those ads will perform differently in the long run?

Enter your clicks and CTR's for each ad in the spaces below, and SplitTester will tell how likely they are to have different long-term results.

Enter Your Numbers Here:
Number of Clicks (First Ad)	<input type="text"/>	Number of Clicks (Second Ad)	<input type="text"/>
CTR (First Ad, in %)*	<input type="text"/>	CTR (Second Ad, in %)*	<input type="text"/>
* Your CTR must be entered as a simple percentage. For example, enter 3.1% as "3.1", and not "0.031"; Enter 0.7% as "0.7"
<input type="button" value="Calculate"/>		<input type="button" value="Reset"/>
